

Proclamation

Presented to

The Chamber of Commerce Hawai'i

WHEREAS, the Chamber of Commerce Hawai'i's mission is to improve the state's economy and business climate so that businesses in Hawai'i can thrive and expand; the Chamber also works on behalf of members and the entire business community to improve the state's economic climate; and

WHEREAS the Chamber of Commerce Hawai'i represents the interests of all Hawai'i's business community; with more than 1,000 member companies representing more than 200,000 employees, the Chamber is the leading center for business and for over 164 years has served as "The Voice of Business in Hawai'i"; and

WHEREAS, the Chamber of Commerce Hawai'i offers business networking, provides training and business building opportunities, and advocates on behalf of business interests; the Chamber, a member-driven, member-supported organization, brings together diverse interests to foster positive action on issues of common concern to the business community; and

WHEREAS, the Chamber of Commerce Hawai'i will be celebrating "Chamber Week," from January 20 to 23, 2015, with a series of events designed to encourage local business to become more involved in the legislative process and to give members the opportunity to hear from key legislators on matters facing our economic future;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DAVID Y. IGE, Governor of the State of Hawai'i, and I, SHAN S. TSUTSUI, Lieutenant Governor of the State of Hawai'i, do hereby proclaim January 20 through 23, 2015, as in Hawai'i and encourage the people of the Aloha State to join us in recognizing the Chamber of Commerce of Hawai'i for its efforts to champion the special needs and challenges of Hawai'i's small business community.

"CHAMBER WEEK"

DONE, at the State Capitol, in Executive Chambers, Honolulu, State of Hawai'i, this ninth day of January 2015.

DAVID Y. IGE
Governor, State of Hawai'i

SHAN S. TSUTSUI
Lt. Governor, State of Hawai'i
