Colorectal Cancer Awareness Month

WHEREAS, the colorectal cancer awareness initiatives are important for education and prevention, and
WHEREAS, the colorectal cancer awareness initiatives are necessary for early detection and treatment,
WHEREAS, the colorectal cancer awareness initiatives are critical for public health,
WHEREAS, the colorectal cancer awareness initiatives are essential for reducing mortality rates,
WHEREAS, the colorectal cancer awareness initiatives are necessary for improving quality of life,
WHEREAS, the colorectal cancer awareness initiatives are important for reducing healthcare costs,
WHEREAS, the colorectal cancer awareness initiatives are necessary for developing effective screening programs,
WHEREAS, the colorectal cancer awareness initiatives are important for promoting healthy lifestyles,
WHEREAS, the colorectal cancer awareness initiatives are necessary for increasing public awareness,
WHEREAS, the colorectal cancer awareness initiatives are critical for reducing the burden of colorectal cancer,
WHEREAS, the colorectal cancer awareness initiatives are essential for improving colorectal cancer screening rates,
WHEREAS, the colorectal cancer awareness initiatives are necessary for reducing colorectal cancer mortality rates,
WHEREAS, the colorectal cancer awareness initiatives are important for increasing colorectal cancer survival rates.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, David Ige, Governor of the State of Hawaii, do hereby proclaim March 2016 as Colorectal Cancer Awareness Month and urge all citizens to participate in the awareness campaigns and activities in support of colorectal cancer prevention, early detection, and treatment.

Done at the State Capitol, in the Executive Chambers, Honolulu, State of Hawaii, on this twenty-first day of February, Two Thousand Sixteen.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the State of Hawaii to be affixed.

David Ige, Governor