In Recognition of

Justice Architecture Week

WHEREAS, the American Institute of Architects (AIA) will be hosting designers, builders, managers and administrators at the 2016 Academy of Architecture for Justice (AAJ) National Conference to be held November 2-5, 2016 at The Modern Hotel in Honolulu, Hawai'i; and

WHEREAS, this year's Academy of Architecture for Justice National Conference theme, ALOHA! Sharing Justice Architecture Best Practices, seeks to share advancements in justice architecture that support development of lasting, meaningful and successful justice systems; and

WHEREAS, the Academy's sustainable justice endeavor seeks to understand Hawai'i's culture and share in its reverence and respect of nature, to identify common threads and to work diligently toward preserving the world's precious resources in the design and maintenance of justice projects; and

WHEREAS, renowned justice practitioners gathered at this year's conference will share their knowledge with Hawai'i's academic, design and building communities on issues pertaining to justice architecture, and seek to provide a sustainable means to collaboratively resolve issues encountered in the design of courts, detention/correction and law enforcement facilities; and

WHEREAS, its University Outreach Program will unite architectural students at the University of Hawai'i's School of Architecture with those who are working in the justice architecture field, and educate and inspire our emerging professionals to consider careers in justice architecture by encouraging them to conduct research and develop advanced, effective and innovative designs to benefit communities at state, national and international levels;

THEREFORE I, DAVID Y. IGE, Governor, and I, SHAN S. TSUTSUI, Lieutenant Governor of the State of Hawai'i, do hereby proclaim October 30 - November 5, 2016 as

"JUSTICE ARCHITECTURE WEEK"

in Hawai'i, and encourage the citizens of the Aloha State to warmly welcome members of the American Institute of Architects who have traveled to our island state to participate, educate and share their knowledge of justice architecture at the 2016 Academy of Architecture for Justice (AAJ) National Conference in Hawai'i.

DONE at the State Capitol, in the Executive Chambers, in Honolulu, State of Hawai'i, on this twenty-first day of October 2016.

DAVID Y. IGE
Governor, State of Hawai'i

SHAN S. TSUTSUI
Lt. Governor, State of Hawai'i
