

Proclamation
In Recognition of
Kona Family Fun Day

WHEREAS, the Big Island Substance Abuse Council (BISAC), established in 1964, strives to enhance the quality of care and provide innovative services in the areas of substance abuse education, intervention and treatment; and

WHEREAS, BISAC envisions a community where everyone can live a healthy and happy life through healing the mind, body and spirit of individuals and families that face challenges from alcohol and other substance abuse and addiction; and

WHEREAS, their services include intensive outpatient treatment, therapeutic living, adolescent school-based services, adult mental health care and the Po'okela vocational program; and

WHEREAS, BISAC helps improve the overall quality of life by teaching clients the skills to prevent relapses and arrests that can affect school, work or family life; reducing emergency room visits for conditions related to abuse of drugs or alcohol; and improving parenting skills to foster more stable home environments; and

WHEREAS, BISAC is hosting the Kona Family Fun Day 2017 at the Kekuaoakalani Gym Park Complex to celebrate the strength and well-being of everyone in our community;

THEREFORE I, DAVID Y. IGE, Governor, and I, SHAN S. TSUTSUI, Lt. Governor of the State of Hawai'i, do hereby proclaim March 25, 2017 as in Hawai'i and ask all the citizens of the Aloha State to join us in recognizing an organization whose dedication, compassion and hard work truly make a difference in our community.

DONE at the State Capitol, in Executive Chambers, Honolulu, State of Hawai'i, this tenth day of March 2017.

DAVID Y. IGE
Governor, State of Hawai'i

SHAN S. TSUTSUI
Lt. Governor, State of Hawai'i
