

Proclamation

WHEREAS, insurance and risk management protect families and property, help people recover from the crises in their lives, and give them peace of mind, security and stability; and

WHEREAS, insurance and risk management professionals have the expertise to proactively manage risk and prevent losses; and

WHEREAS, May 18, 2020 through May 22, 2020 has been designated as International Association of Insurance Professionals (IAIP) Week celebrated by members representing insurance and risk management professions across the United States, Canada, Puerto Rico and other countries; and

WHEREAS, in March 1947, the Honolulu Association of Insurance Professionals (HAIP) was established, becoming the local chapter of the IAIP; and

WHEREAS, HAIP serves its members by providing professional education, leadership development and networking opportunities to connect people of various career paths and levels of experience; and

WHEREAS, HAIP encourages community involvement and a desire for service by providing opportunities for members to work with organizations such as March of Dimes, March for Babies Governors' Ball, and the Hawai'i Emergency Management Agency's Disaster Preparedness Fair;

THEREFORE I, DAVID Y. IGE, Governor of the State of Hawai'i, do hereby proclaim May 18–22, 2020 as in Hawai'i and ask the people of the Aloha State to join us in recognizing insurance and risk management professionals for their continued service to helping citizens protect and care for their businesses, personal property, health and loved ones.

Done at the State Capitol in the Executive Chambers, Honolulu, State of Hawai'i, this fifteenth day of May 2020.

DAVID Y. IGE
Governor, State of Hawai'i
